

We consider excellence in both research and teaching as the key to master tomorrow's challenges, and strive to fulfil our responsibility to comment on the impact of information technologies on society. Since our foundations were laid more than 70 years ago, we have become Austria's largest faculty of Informatics and one of Europe's leading research and innovation institutions. We are a diverse and international group of people, and we all strive to excel in research, share the same sense of responsibility, and integrate research and teaching in our daily lives.
